

Pulama's Accomplishments in 2002

Your support in 2002 enabled us to accomplish the following:

- Developed and Distributed " A Driver's Guide to the Kona Heritage Corridor and Historic Holualoa" (Funding source: Your membership dues, County of Hawaii, West Hawaii Hartwell and Rebecca Carter Fund)
- Gerald Adelman of the Canal Corridor Association in Illinois and leader in establishing the first National Heritage Corridor, the Illinois and Michigan Canal National Heritage Corridor met with Pulama members and community leaders to discuss processes of establishing a heritage corridor. (Funding source: Your membership dues , Hokulia)
- As a result of Gerald Adelman's input we organized the Kona Heritage Corridor Advisory Council which will make recommendations to Pulama.
- Michael Conzen, Historic Geographer from the University of Chicago met with the Advisory Council to help determine the parameters of the heritage corridor. (Funding Source: Your membership dues, Hokulia)
- The Advisory Council will use information gleaned from Michael Conzen's report to determine boundaries as well as review Pulama's Strategic Plan to bring the Kona Heritage Corridor to fruition.
- Heritage Exhibits were developed and placed in four heritage buildings in Holualoa Village (Funding source: Your contributions to Fun Run 2001, Hawaii Tourism Authority.)

Your support of Fun Run 2002 and membership in 2003 will enable Pulama to continue working toward the development of the Kona Heritage Corridor.

Annual Report: 2002

- Developed and Distributed " A Driver's Guide to the Kona Heritage Corridor and Historic Holualoa" (Funding source: Membership dues, County of Hawaii, West Hawaii Hartwell and Rebecca Carter Fund)
- Gerald Adelman of the Canal Corridor Association in Illinois and leader in establishing the first National Heritage Corridor, the Illinois and Michigan Canal National Heritage Corridor met with Pulama members and community leaders to discuss processes of establishing a heritage corridor. (Funding source: Membership dues , Hokulia)
- As a result of Gerald Adelman's input we organized the Kona Heritage Corridor Advisory Council which will make recommendations to Pulama.
- Michael Conzen, Historic Geographer from the University of Chicago met with the Advisory Council to help determine the parameters of the heritage corridor. (Funding Source: Membership dues, Hokulia)
- The Advisory Council will use information gleaned from Michael Conzen's report to determine boundaries as well as review Pulama's Strategic Plan to bring the Kona Heritage Corridor to fruition.
- Heritage Exhibits were developed and placed in four heritage buildings in Holualoa Village (Funding source: Fun Run 2001, Hawaii Tourism Authority.)
- Advisory Council met three times during the year and recommended that the parameters of the Kona Heritage Corridor be limited to the Mamalahoa Highway through North and South Kona. To accomplish this, Pulama developed a strategic plan which includes the formation of a salaried management team to be funded with grants. The strategic plan will be available to persons who wish to review it and is available from Tomoe Nimori email:tomoe@ilhawaii.net. or PO Box 169, Holualoa, HI 96725.

Pulama looks forward to 2003 as a time to work on the pilot Holualoa Heritage Corridor which is in need of a Beautification plan and signage and as a time to launch the management team that will mobilize community persons, obtain federal and state funding and work with the County of Hawaii and state agencies to establish the Kona Heritage Corridor.

The Directors of the Board are grateful to you who have served as volunteers on our projects, supported us with membership dues, supported our Family Fun Run and made special donations towards the development of the Kona Heritage Corridor.
