

Pulama Ia Kona Heritage Preservation Council

Annual Report: 2004

- Reprinted, "A Driver's Guide to the Kona Heritage Corridor and Historic Holualoa"
- Management Team -- Russell Kokubun manager, Sheree Chase, preservation liaison, Millie Kim, government liaison. Funding from the National Trust for Historic Preservation our team developed an informational brochure recommended by the Advisory Committee to address questions about a heritage corridor.
- Conducted a Workshop on December 1, "How the Kona Heritage Corridor Benefits Our Community" Proceedings are attached.
- Received a $10,000 grant award from Verizon Hawaii to followup our workshop with educational projects such as articles in West Hawaii Today, presentations to community groups, and an educational exhibit for schools.

Pulama looks forward to 2005 as a time to provide educational programs to increase our circle of friends. The management team will continue to work with community persons, the County of Hawaii and state agencies to establish the Kona Heritage Corridor.

The Directors of the Board are grateful to you who have served as volunteers on our projects, supported us with membership dues, made special donations towards fund raising to continue development of the Kona Heritage Corridor.
