

This month we salute the efforts of Kurt & Thea Brown, 30 year Kona residents who have restored the classic Keauhou Store on Mamalahoa Highway, just 1 mile north of the Honalo junction.

The landmark upcountry building is now re-opened Mondays ~ Saturdays, 10am ~ 5:30 pm, and once again serving upcountry residents with convenience foods, fresh produce, Kona coffee, groceries... and homemade cookies.

Built in 1919 by Yoshisuke Sasaki, the store has a fascinating and rich history as part of the life and times of Mamalahoa highway ~ our ten mile Scenic Byway. Find out more about the Keauhou Store at: www.keauhoustore.com

With each new update of our site we will feature another classic building along the Mamalahoa Kona Heritage Corridor.
